

Town of Burns Harbor Board of Zoning Appeals Special Exception Checklist

Petitioning the BZA is a three step two meeting process:

Step 1: Submit completed Application Packet for a Special Exception to the Secretary

Step 2: (First Meeting): Preliminary Hearing*

Step 3: (Second Meeting): Public Hearing*

*BZA meetings occur on the fourth Tuesday of the month

Application Packet Requirements

The items listed below must be submitted to the Secretary at least ten (10) days prior to the Preliminary Hearing. Group all of the originals in one envelope marked "Originals" and make ten (10) copies of the entire "Originals" packet. An electronic copy (pdf) of the application and required attachments should also be submitted to the Secretary.

A completed and notarized Special Exception Application

- i. Incomplete applications will not be processed or presented to the Board.
- ii. It is the responsibility of the Petitioner to ensure the application is complete at time of submittal.
- iii. The Secretary may only provide assistance in helping the Petitioner understand the required documentation, neither the Secretary nor any staff will be available to provide missing information.

A written narrative of how the eight (8) standards of compliance will be met

- i. In the explanation, it is not enough for the Petitioner to simply restate that each standard WILL or WILL NOT be met, the Petitioner must explain HOW.
- ii. The 8 Standards are as follows:
 1. The Special Exception will be designed, constructed, operated, and maintained in a manner harmonious with the character of adjacent property.
 2. The Special Exception will not inappropriately change the essential character of the surrounding area.
 3. The Special Exception will not interfere with the general enjoyment of the adjacent property.
 4. The Special Exception will represent an improvement for the use or character of the property under consideration and the surrounding area in general, yet also keep with the natural environment of the site.
 5. The Special Exception will not be hazardous to adjacent property, or involve uses, activities, materials, or equipment which will be detrimental to the health, safety, or welfare of persons or property through the excessive production of traffic, noise, smoke, odor, fumes, or glare.

Special Exception

6. The Special Exception will be adequately served by essential public facilities and services, or, the person responsible for the proposed Special Exception will continually provide adequately for the services and facilities deemed essential to the Special Use under consideration.
7. The Special Exception will not place demands on public service facilities in excess of available capacity.
8. The Special Exception is consistent with the intent and purpose of the Town Code and the objectives of the Comprehensive Plan.

Site Plan

- i. The Site Plan must be drawn to scale, adhere to Section 15-3-5(E) of the Town Code and should accurately and completely describe the proposed project, including but not limited to:
 - a. All existing and proposed structure(s)
 - b. Lot dimensions
 - c. Property Lines
 - d. Adjacent street(s)
 - e. Distances from structure(s) to property lines
 - f. All existing and proposed easements
 - g. All existing and proposed landscaping, fencing, and/or walls

Rejected Building Permit

- i. This is obtained from the Office of the Building Commissioner

Proof of Ownership

- i. If the Petitioner is the owner, a copy of the Deed to the property
- ii. If the Petitioner is NOT the owner, a properly executed Power of Attorney

Landscaping Plan (where applicable)

Drainage Calculations (where applicable)

Any other relevant information (pictures, exhibits, etc.)

- i. The names and address of adjacent property owners can be found by:
 - a. Presenting the legal description of the Petitioner's property to the Porter County Assessor's office located at the County Administrative Building in Valparaiso, Indiana;
 - b. By visiting Porter County, IN - Official Website - GIS: View the Porter County Portico GIS Map and entering 300 feet; or
 - c. By contacting a local Title Company.

Filing Fee of $150.00

- i. The filing fee should be paid to the Clerk-Treasurer located at the Town Hall. Upon payment, the Clerk-Treasurer will issue a receipt to the Petitioner, a copy of which shall be provided, by the Petitioner, to the Secretary.

Town of Burns Harbor Board of Zoning Appeals Meeting Reminder

The Petitioner or certified agent must be present at both the Board of Zoning Appeals Preliminary and Public Hearings to explain the proposed special exception and address and discuss comments and concerns posed by the Board and/or the public.

Failure to appear at either meeting may result in the dismissal of the Application for the Special Exception.

The Board of Zoning Appeals will assess the SPECIAL EXCEPTION application based upon its conformance to the following Standards:

1. The Special Exception will be designed, constructed, operated, and maintained in a manner harmonious with the character of adjacent property.
2. The Special Exception will not inappropriately change the essential character of the surrounding area.
3. The Special Exception will not interfere with the general enjoyment of the adjacent property.
4. The Special Exception will represent an improvement for the use or character of the property under consideration and the surrounding area in general, yet also keep with the natural environment of the site.
5. The Special Exception will not be hazardous to adjacent property, or involve uses, activities, materials, or equipment which will be detrimental to the health, safety, or welfare of persons or property through the excessive production of traffic, noise, smoke, odor, fumes, or glare.
6. The Special Exception will be adequately served by essential public facilities and services, or, the person responsible for the proposed Special Exception will continually provide adequately for the services and facilities deemed essential to the Special Use under consideration.
7. The Special Exception will not place demands on public service facilities in excess of available capacity.
8. The Special Exception is consistent with the intent and purpose of the Town Code and the objectives of the Comprehensive Plan.

In assessing whether a Special Exception request conforms to the above 8 Standards, Applicants may consider the following questions in relation to the property and their request:

How does the proposed special use keep with the spirit and intent of the Town's Comprehensive Plan? What is/are the purpose of the involved zoning district(s)? How will the special use keep with that purpose?

What precautions will be put in place to prevent excessive or undue noise, traffic, odors, glare, etc.?

What public service facilities are already available to the property? What additional services will be needed as a result of the special use? Who will provide those services?

Preliminary Hearing

1. The Petitioner or certified agent must be present at the Board of Zoning Appeals Preliminary Hearing to formally submit the Application Packet and describe the proposed use to the Board.
2. Failure to appear at this first meeting will result in the Application not being set for a public hearing and may result in the dismissal of the Application all together.
3. At this meeting, the Board will address any deficiencies detected in the Application Packet and may make requests that some or all of the Application Packet be revised or amended for the Public Hearing.
4. After preliminary review and acceptance of the Application, the Board will set a date to hold a Public Hearing, the Preliminary Hearing will be closed, and the Petitioner will be excused until the next meeting.
